

to issue a Temporary Restraining Order and, thereafter, Temporary and Permanent Injunctions against Defendants Retirement Value, LLC, Richard H. “Dick” Gray, and Bruce Collins (“Collins”). In addition, the State requested that the Court appoint Eduardo S. Espinosa as receiver for Retirement Value, LLC.

The Court issued the Agreed Temporary Injunction Order against Defendants Retirement Value and Richard H. “Dick” Gray and the Relief Defendant and Order Appointing Receiver (the “Agreed TI”) on May 28, 2010. In the Agreed TI, the Court continued the appointment of Mr. Espinosa as receiver for Defendant Retirement Value. As receiver, Mr. Espinosa is charged with, among other things, collecting and preserving the assets of Retirement Value for the ultimate purpose of effecting fair restitution, if necessary and/or possible, to the victims of the alleged fraud committed by Retirement Value.

Pursuant to the Agreed TI, the Receiver is to submit to the Court and the parties of record a request for payment of expenses related to professionals. If no objection is filed with the Court within 10 days of filing, then the Receiver can pay the expenses without further order of the Court. Agreed TI at 15.

RETENTION OF PROFESSIONALS

In addition to his counsel at Cox Smith Matthews, Incorporated, the Receiver has retained the following professionals to assist in the management of the estate for which he seeks authority to pay:

- The Asset Servicing Group to (i) act as portfolio managers; (ii) advise the Receiver as to the policies’ value and viability; and (iii) provide industry and asset management expertise.
- Lewis & Ellis, Inc. to act as actuarial consultants and provide actuarial analyses of the estate’s policies.

- BKD, LLP to act as accountants; maintain and analyze the books and records of Retirement Value and of the Receiver; provide tax advice and return preparation services; and advise regarding accounting standards, practices and procedures.

The assistance of these professionals is necessary to the effective management of the receivership estate and to maximize the recovery available for the investor victims.

I. Asset Servicing Group

The Receiver has retained the Asset Servicing Group (“ASG”) to act as portfolio manager for the 51 (originally 54) policies of life insurance owned by Retirement Value. ASG’s fees represent ASG’s monthly servicing fee as well as fees and expenses related to optimization of premiums, and the collection of the insureds’ updated health information. In addition, ASG provided expert and consulting services in connection with the due diligence efforts associated with evaluating alternative plans of distribution. ASG also facilitated, coordinated and advanced payment for the acquisition of updated medical histories and life expectancy certificates on the portfolio’s insureds. ASG’s fees for services rendered between March 2013 and June 2013 are $17,743.42. Copies of ASG’s Invoice numbers #958, #1000, #1025, and #1058 in the amounts of $4,500.50, $5,150.70, $4,176.75 and $3,915.47, respectively, are attached as Exhibit A.

The services that ASG provides include Policy Administration (payment of premiums, correspondence with insurers), Death Tracking, Claims Processing, Verification of Policies, Premium Optimization and Policy Valuation. These services are essential to the proper maintenance and management of the portfolio.

II. Lewis & Ellis, Inc.

The Receiver has retained Lewis & Ellis, Inc. to act as actuarial consultants. It provides actuarial analysis of the anticipated cash flows related to the portfolio necessary to enable the Receiver to accurately value the portfolio and maximize its value.

Lewis & Ellis agreed to analyze the estate's policies at a fixed rate of $300 per policy. It performs the actuarial analysis on a rolling basis, as updated medicals and updated life expectancies are received. Prior to this billing period, Lewis & Ellis performed actuarial analysis on all of Retirement Value's forty-nine (49) policies, which formed the basis for the Receiver's assessment of the portfolio's liquidation value. In addition, Lewis & Ellis also assisted in valuing the five policies in the Hill Country Funding portfolio. In March 2013 through May 2013, Lewis and Ellis, performed additional actuarial analysis of each Hill Country Funding policy and assisted in preparation for litigation. Lewis & Ellis' fees for services rendered during March 2013 through May 2013 are $3,553.24. A copy of Lewis & Ellis' Invoice numbers #10995 and 11158 in the amounts of $2,835.24 and $700.00, respectively, are attached as Exhibit B.

III. BKD, LLP

The Receiver has retained BKD, LLP to provide accounting services for the estate. BKD maintains the receivership's books, and restated Retirement Value's books to more accurately reflect the company's true financial condition. This required, among other things, consolidating the financial records maintained by Kiesling Porter Kiesling and Free on behalf of Retirement Value with those maintained directly by Retirement Value. The Receiver has also entered into a separate agreement with BKD to provide the estate with tax services. BKD's hourly rates for tax services range from $130/hour for staff to $365/hour for partner time. In this instance BKD has agreed to (i) cap its partners' billing rate @ $325/hour; and (ii) set a target-blended rate of $225. BKD's fees for services rendered from February 2013 through May 2013 are $22,844.28. Copies of BKD's Invoice numbers #182939, #194170, #198848 and # 209130 in the amount of $14,287.53, $1,353.75, $3,784.12 and $3,418.88, respectively are attached as Exhibit C.

In addition, the Receiver has engaged BKD to provide litigation support and expert testimony regarding accounting standards, practices and procedures. No fees for these services are submitted herewith.

ARGUMENT

The Receiver has broad authority to hire consultants and experts to assist him in the fulfillment of his duties. Pursuant to the Agreed TI, the Receiver is authorized to “hire employees, contractors, consultants ... or other assistants under terms to be determined by the Receiver, whose services, in the sole discretion of the Receiver, are necessary for the efficient and accurate administration of the receivership estate.” Agreed TI at 14, ¶ 8. The services provided by ASG, and BKD are required for the administration of the estate and can be performed by these providers more efficiently and at lower cost than the Receiver or his counsel can perform them. The fees charged by each vendor are reasonable and necessary.

ACCORDINGLY the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court approve the proposed payments requested herein.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
